About This Game

Hello, video game user! If you are looking for a video game, you are in the right place. Ball Kicker is a fast-paced 3D platformer in which players control balls to fight objectives on various maps in multiple team-based or free-for-all gamemodes.

This game has

- Totally unrealistic power-ups (Bomb, Invisibility, Blaster, ...)
- A satisfying grappling hook to move around smoothly and a devastating dash ability to destroy your enemies
- Multiple game modes, namely Capture The Flag (steal enemy flags and bring them back to your base to score), Battle Royale (do we really need to explain this one?), Collect (harvest points throughout the level and bring them back to your bank), Soccer (yeah this one adds an extra ball), Warfare (conquer territory by capturing nodes to dominate the enemy)
- 5 different maps to fight on and counting
- Awesome cosmetics! Who doesn't love them?

This games does NOT have

- Famous voice actors. You really think we got that kind of money to spend?
 - A story mode. We don't have a narrative and nothing really makes sense. But hey, does it make it any less fun?
 - Funny jokes. We try really hard to get those, but one can only do so much without talent
 - The princess. Sorry, but she is in another castle.

About our paid content policy

Ball Kicker will always remain free as a game. You can buy optional cosmetics if you enjoy the game, but none of them impacts game mechanics in any way. We believe it is possible to have a sane F2P game where players are not pressured into grinding nor spending more money than they would like to. That being said, our paid cosmetics rock and you should definitely check them out so that we're not homeless by the end of the year.

I wonder if we should add anything else in that description. No don't write that... Stop typing everything I say! Oh come over here i'm gonna beat your a5768rtnpu 5p$& 'u^é
